Dairy Product Labeling Guide

A dairy product labeling guide for farm processors outlining the information typically shown on labels and where to check rules before printing.

Farm / unit: _____ Date: _____ By: _____

1. Identify the product name
2. List ingredients in the right order
3. Note allergen statements
4. Add net contents
5. Add business name and address
6. Check storage and handling statements
7. Review claims on the label
8. Confirm state label rules
9. Have the label reviewed before printing

YOUR NOTES

TIP Verify requirements with FDA and your state dairy regulator before printing, since labels must follow current rules.
