Small Ruminant Nutrition Guide

A guide to the basics of feeding sheep and goats at different life stages. Use it to organize questions for your nutritionist or extension agent.

Farm / unit: _____ Date: _____ By: _____

1. List animal classes on the farm
2. Note stage of production for each
3. Test forage quality
4. Check water supply
5. Choose supplements per label
6. Watch body condition
7. Make feed changes gradually
8. Review the plan each season

YOUR NOTES

TIP Ask a nutritionist or extension agent to review your plan, since needs differ by stage and species.
